

Can I charge my recipients to receive the MMS?

YES – you can charge your recipients via reverse billing to their mobile accounts to receive premium content. We will not reverse bill your recipients during your first campaign with us. We will reverse bill for any marketing campaign – premium content only – this can include special promotions, discounts or similar. Contact us for further information