

Can I request payment for a service/product/charity from the MMS?

YES – your MMS Mobile Marketing campaign can as a call to action request that your recipients text a short code which they will be billed for, either once or ongoing allowing you to send premium content at their opt-in request or set up a monthly charitable donation which gets billed to their mobile account. Contact us for further information